

COLD SPRING HARBOR CFA-PTO

DRESS CODE

Cold Spring Harbor believes that students should dress in a neat and appropriate manner, one that reflects pride in themselves, their home, and their school. All fashion fads may not be appropriate for school.

Beach wear and similar types of clothing are considered inappropriate.

Attire with pictures and/or sayings which promote or glorify substance abuse, illegal activity, demeaning phrases or images towards others, violent images, racial and/or ethnic messages are all deemed inappropriate.

Hats/visors are not permitted to be worn in the school building at any time.

If a student's clothing is disruptive and/or distracting to the educational process, the administration may intercede with the following:

- Counseling
- Parent contact
- Cover up and/or change
- Sent home
- Detention
